Wallis and Futuna is known for its customary festivals deeply rooted in its culture, giving rhythm to the daily life of its inhabitants. These ceremonies are called Katoaga and take place during a religious holiday (the different districts celebrate their patron saint each year), a family event or secular holidays such as July 14 or the ...

The Futuna island group was discovered by the Dutch in 1616 and Wallis by the British in 1767, but it was the French who declared a protectorate over the islands in 1842. In 1959, the inhabitants of the islands voted to become a French overseas territory.
